Parent Appreciation

We, the class of 1974, would like to thank you, our parents, for all the help and guidance that you have given us. You have always been by our side when we needed you and now, when we are taking a step that will take us toward our independence from you, we wish to say, "Thanks."

Editors Message

In this, our last year at MCS, the members of the class of '74 seem to draw more closely together; perhaps growing more in awe of the greater responsibility to be taken on, once we leave.

In the past years we have felt the security of the school's guidance, and accepted it as a major part of our lives.

Now the time has come when we must take what we have learned and apply it to the new situations we will encounter outside these walls.

The world is providing a challenge, one that we're sure the Class of '74 will meet with good judgement, confidence, and perseverance.

Appreciation

As seniors we would like to show our appreciation to the one teacher who has unselfishly devoted time and effort to make us more responsible students. She is always willing to take the time to help our students and has therefore become a friend. She is witty, kind, and has a great personality.

Because of her devotion as our Junior Class advisor and her help with our candy sales; we, the Class of 1974, wish to show our appreciation to the teacher who undoubtedly deserves it, MISS POLLAK.

Board Of Education

District Principal

The production of an annual yearbook is like a preview of the world outside of school. The seniors who shoulder responsibility for the production will receive the praise or criticism depending on the quality of their work.

"Better than wonderful," will come about in life only after one develops a life style which is based on quality workmanship, willingness to work, and compassion for his fellow man.

It is my personal desire to provide an educational environment that will enable the graduates of Mayfield Central School to attain a future more rewarding than "wonderful."

Curt Maxson

Colleen,
"My homeroom friend"
Only 2 more years + we're

Foreword

As the time to close comes once again we review the years we have spent at Mayfield High.
We reminisce about the wonderful times we have had and we realize that things are going to be better than when they were just wonderful.

Colleen,
Another year has come and gone. It was fun though. Just think two more years.
Remember our moon times but most of all remember me.
Enjoy life and take it easy.
Cindy
